Congratulations to All !

300 GAME

On Sunday January 12th, 2014, Stephanie Adams had her first 300 game, in a tournament where she qualified first in a field of 41 female bowlers at the GISBT (scratch) tourney in Cedar Rapids, Iowa with a 226 average and finished first by days end to claim her first big tourney win. Congratulations Stephanie !

(L-R) Brittany Johnson, Jacques Kaune & Stephanie Adams

University Play - September - December

Midwest Collegiate	158 Average	122nd out of 207 bowlers
Kegel ISBPA	174 Average	42nd out of 130 bowlers
Leatherback Classic	178 Average	61st out of 276 bowlers
Midland Classic	195 Average	5th out of 58 bowlers
Warhawk Open	181 Average	12th out of 143 bowlers
Las Vegas Invitational	184 Average	18th out of 127 bowlers
Collegiate Shootout	208 Average	7th out of 123 bowlers

Stephanie has been steadily improving her power game thanks to coaches Mark Van Wyk and Breanne Underwood from William Penn University. However, she also wants to thank Trevor Peters from Brandon for teaching her to bowl with just one ball so she could learn to bowl with accuracy and become very skilled in making spares. It wasn't until she bowled at the college level that she realized how important it is to spare everything that isn't a strike.

Naylor Gets His First 300 Game

Liam Naylor bowled his first career 300 on January 27th, at Chateau Lanes in Winnipeg; and this was no ordinary perfect game. He achieved this milestone while bowling in the Monday Night WTBA League. This league only uses World Tenpin Bowling Association lane oiling patterns when they bowl. On that night, they were using what's known as the "Montreal" pattern. His first perfecto - one he should truly be proud of.

Coutts Gets His First 300

Sean Coutts, one of our strong local Senior youth bowlers, after having come close many times in the past few years, finally threw the 12th strike for his first-ever 300 game. And he picked a great time to do it. He was bowling in an Adult-Youth Doubles tournament on January 24th at Chateau Lanes.

Now that Sean got that first one, we're sure there will be many more! Congratulations Sean!

Winnipeg Tenpin Bowling Association New Bowling Group on Facebook

For those of you who are on Facebook, there has been a new group started. It is called Winnipeg Tenpin Bowlers. It is different than the Winnipeg Tenpin Bowling Association page.

With the Winnipeg Tenpin Bowlers group, we will be able to invite bowlers to tournaments. Once you become a member of this group, you will be able to connect with other bowlers.

If you have a bowling ball that you no longer want, you can let other bowlers know. Someone may just be looking one. If you have a question about bowling, ask. There is probably another bowler or two who can answer it for you.

Looking forward to seeing you as a member.

Wanda Howard,
President, WTBA

Former Youth Champion Rolls his First 800 Series

Catlin Crandall, a former Youth Champion, bowled his first-ever sanctioned 800 series on January 26, 2014. He was bowling at Chateau Lanes in an Adult-Youth Doubles Tournament (he was the adult), and started things off with quite a bang - his first three games were 248, 286, and 279, for a total of 813!

And what a week he had. On January 24th, he rolled a 300 game during league play in the Greater Winnipeg Classic League at Chateau Lanes, as well as a 298 game in the Winnipeg Senior Men's League on January 21st at Laverendrye Lanes.

Congratulations Catlin !

Manitoba Open Results

The Manitoba Open, the biggest scratch bowling event we have in Manitoba, took place on January 4th and 5th. We had 78 entries, with many from out-of-province, such as Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Ontario, as well as from the U.S. - North Dakota, South Dakota, and Minnesota.

This was the 33rd year for this tournament, and it may have been the first time that the final match was between two Winnipeggers - Mike Schmidt, and Joe Franchewski duked it out in the finals, with Schmidt ending up victorious and capturing the title for a record 5th time!

You can see all the details of the tournament, including scores, as well as the history of the Manitoba Open. There are also many many pictures.
